

2022 Mary Lugton Postdoctoral Fellowship FAQs

1. Do I have to be working at the University of Melbourne to qualify for the Mary Lugton Postdoc Fellowship?

There is no requirement for an applicant to be a staff member at the time of application, however they will need to be a staff member to accept and hold the award. All applicants must establish an academic contact at the University of Melbourne who will act as mentor during the Fellowship. Award of the fellowship does not guarantee an offer of employment and the relevant Academic Division will need to indicate support of the applicant, including support of any appointment.

2. Who was Mary Lugton?

The donor, Mary Evelyn Lugton, was a valued member of the University's alumni and staff communities. She was awarded a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) majoring in history in 1945 and was a non-resident member of Janet Clarke Hall. Following her graduation, she went on to have a long association with the Baillieu Library, joining the Reference Department in 1946, rising to Senior Reference Librarian and later becoming the University Bibliographer in 1978, a position she held until her retirement in 1989. She initiated many exhibitions in the Baillieu, was closely involved in the planning of the new building, and wrote at least two publications, Introduction to the Baillieu Library and Books by Women Graduates. Through a gift in her Will, Ms Lugton provided generous philanthropic support for graduate scholarships and fellowships across the fields of art conservation, medicine, science, botany, engineering and history.

3. The guideline document states we should also seek faculty support. Is this referring to research project funds?

Section 5.1 advises that Academic Divisions need to document the support they will provide. This includes any funding contribution towards project costs associated with the Fellowship.

Section 4.3 states that all applicants must establish an academic contact at the University of Melbourne who will act as mentor during the Fellowship. Applicants can use the University's Find an Expert search tool to find academics in their field and liaise with the relevant Academic Division administrative contact on how best to connect with academic staff members.
