Successful recipients of the Victoria-Germany Bilateral Academic Exchange Program

2022

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>UoM CI</th>
<th>Faculty</th>
<th>Collaborating institution</th>
<th>Project Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dr Srujana Sahebjada</td>
<td>MDHS</td>
<td>Saarland University Hospital</td>
<td>Reducing vision loss in children and young adults: improved diagnosis and management of corneal condition through understanding of risk factors and application of artificial intelligence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kate Bray</td>
<td>MDHS</td>
<td>Technische Universität Dresden</td>
<td>Creation and validation of an English version of an empathy and Theory of Mind measurement tool for adolescents: EmpaToM-Y-Engl</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2021

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>UoM CI</th>
<th>Faculty</th>
<th>Collaborating institution</th>
<th>Project Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Prof Jason Mackenzie A/Prof Daniel Heath</td>
<td>MDHS</td>
<td>University of Bonn</td>
<td>Vaccine design to prevent viral infectious disease</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>FEIT</td>
<td>University of Bayreuth</td>
<td>Advanced biomaterials for next generation cardiovascular medical devices</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>